BUILDING HOPE

Following on from the Synodal Pathway Process, the Archdiocese has begun a process, at Parish level, to discuss and plan the future direction of the Diocese and each Parish.
 Once again we begin with Prayer, asking the Holy Spirit to guide and inspire us to address the significant issues affecting our Church and Society.
 The Building of Hope leadership group, comprising members of Parish Pastoral Council, Parish Finance Committee, local priests and others is being set up in order to discuss and plan the future direction of our Church, similar to the Synodal Pathway.
 More information later.

BISHOP JIM MORIARTY RIP

A Mass of Remembrance and thanksgiving for Bishop Jim will take place this Sunday 8th May at 11.30am, Bishop Jim lived on retirement in the Parish for ten years and was well known and respected.
 It was our honour and privilege to have him in our Parish, and he was a great help to me during his time in St Anthony's.
 He died on the 26th March and his funeral took place in Carlow Cathedral, as he was Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin from 2002-2010
 May he Rest in Peace
 Please join us for his Remembrance Mass this Sunday at 11.30am Members of his family will be present.
 Fr Larry

SYNODAL PATHWAY

As a parish, we have completed our Syodal Process and haver submitted our Feedback Forms to the Archdiocese.
 I would like to thank all those who participated in our two gatherings and shared their hopes, dreams and concerns regarding our Church.
 We are encouraged by the words of Jesus
 'Where two or more are gathered in my name, I am in the midst of them'
 That guided by prayer, reflection and faith, the Holy Spirit will guide us
 I would especially like to mention and thank Olga McCarrick and Joseph Mc Donagh our Animators, who planned, organised and guided our process. They also collated the information and submitted it to the Archdiocese.
 Copies of the Synod feedback forms are available and on display on the notice board at the main door of the Church. They will also be available on our Parish Website
