FR. TOMMY MCCARTHY RIP

Last Tuesday, we celebrated the funeral Mass in St Anthony's for Fr. Tommy. The main Celebrant was Fr Cormac McIlraith, a classmate and a good friend for many years. His sister Aine and family were the principal mourners.
 Also present were many friends, relatives, priests and former parishioners from the many parishes where Tommy served over many years.
 A large number of people were present in spirit and faith on our Webcam.
 Cormac spoke of Tommy's vitality, sense of humour and generous spirit. He had a deep faith and sensitivity, whose wit and humour could lift your spirits and touch your soul.
 As a resident in The Fern Deane Nursing Home for the past 5 years, he was a "Chaplain", who brought Hope, Life and Joy to all who needed him.
 The Archbishop Dermot Farrell spoke with eloquence and insight of his meeting with Tommy in the Hospital last week. He spoke of Tommy's calmness, peace and faith as he knowingly faced the end of his earthly life. Something I experienced myself last Wednesday week on visiting him. His voice was low and calm, his gentle smile was bright, as he held my hand and said farewell. I left with a tear in my eye and the image of a gentle soul who was ready to meet his loving God.
 After the funeral and burial, as Tommy had requested, we had a lovely meal in his favourite Golf Club, Royal Dublin. He was a two handicap golfer in his day. How I envied his talent. We talked and shared many stories of his life and laughed again at his jokes and stories. On the way home I remembered what he said to me as I left the Hospital.
 "Enjoy my Funeral" I then realised what it meant.
 Fr. Tommy may you Rest in Peace. Thank you for the many years you graced us with your presence in St Anthony's and throughout the Archdiocese.
 Let us keep him in our prayers and thoughts
 Fr. Larry

The Curates Corner

Ten questions for your final exam in liturgy:

1. Why is it called "Mass"?
2. Why do we stand at the Gospel and sit for the readings?
3. How many kisses does the priest give during Mass? (No funny ideas here please)
4. Why do we need candles on the altar if the electricity is working perfectly well?
5. Why doesn't the priest wash his hands before Mass and not have to do it on the Altar?
6. What is the box behind the altar called?
7. Why can't the priest say Mass in his ordinary clothes?
8. What's the difference between a homily and a sermon (and the wrong answer is ("a homily lasts forever and a sermon even longer")?)
9. Couldn't they make the Altar Books a little bigger?
10. Why is someone ringing a bell at the consecration (or is it someone's phone?)

Over the summer months, some of the answers will be in the bulletin and you might hear some referred to during the Mass.

*Let us abandon our polemics to listen together to what the Spirit is saying to the Church
 . Let us safeguard our communion
 . Let us continue to be astonished at the beauty of the Liturgy.
 The Paschal Mystery has been given to us.
 Let us allow ourselves to be embraced by the desire that the Lord continues to have to eat His Passover with us.
 All this under the gaze of Mary, Mother of the Church. [§ 65]"

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION HOLY DAY MONDAY 15TH AUGUST Mass times 10.00am & 7.00pm

The Dogma of the Assumption of Lour Lady was proclaimed by Pope Pius X11 in 1950. For many centuries, people believed that Mary's death was an extraordinary event befitting an extraordinary woman . As God has done great things for Mary, we look forward in hope to the great things that
