HOLY WEEK

Next Sunday 24th March is Palm Sunday, the beginning of Holy Week.

It is the most important week of the year for all Christians.

The Holy Week programme and Easter Dues envelopes will be distributed throughout the Parish this week and they are also available at the main doors of the Church.

Palm will be blessed at all Masses next weekend and the Passion will be read at Mass.

It is also an appropriate time to experience the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) . At each Mass, we will reflect and pray for healing, forgiveness and reconciliation in our lives

At the end of each Mass, you are invited to

PREPARING FOR EASTER

Three evenings of guided meditation will take place in St Anthony's church on the 14th 21st and 28 th of March.

The guided meditation will begin at 7.30 pm on the 14th and 21st of March and will last approximately 30 minutes; on 28th March which is Holy Thursday the guided meditation will begin after the Holy Thursday liturgy and will last approximately 45minutes.

Each meditation will consist of readings from the gospel of the day, reflection, prayer and music.

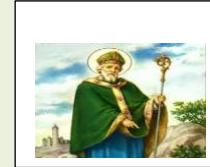

You are invited to participate in person or to join on the webcam.

ST PATRICK'S DAY

We hope you enjoy St Patrick's weekend as we celebrate our Patron Saint.

We are reminded that Patrick brought the message of Christ to Ireland and and countless generations have faithfully passed it on, even through persecution, famine and war.

We have received His precious gift and at this time in our history, let us pass it on through word and example Shamrock will be blessed and available at all Masses

NEW PARISH OFFICE OPENING HOURS:

Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday 9.30am to 1.30pm

Office closed on Wednesdays

NEW WEEKEND MASS TIMES

The weekend Masses will now be
Saturday 10.00am & 5.30pm
Sunday 11.00am.

We hope this will not cause inconvenience.
