SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION
Sunday 22nd December 11.00am

When was the last time you went to Confession? Perhaps you cant remember. I am sure we all recall times when we need to say sorry when we hurt or offended somebody. We carry hurts and sometimes feelings of guilt, shame or failure. Perhaps we carry hurts or pain from broken or damaged relationships. The theme of the Mass next Sunday is how we deal in a healthy way with sin. To have the Faith and Courage to forgive or be forgiven. Absolution will be available from a priest as you leave Mass. Just say 'I am sorry for my sins or Lord be merciful to me a sinner'. Receive absolution and a little Praye Card. Why not give yourself this gift at Christmas Individual confession savailable

PUT CHRIST BACK INTO CHRISTMAS

We all have customs and rituals at Christmas, Gifts, Christmas Tree, Decorations, Crib, visit family and friends. The Christmas Dinner is a special occasion. Why not have a prayer ritual to remind us of who we celebrate and why. Please take a Prayer Card after Mass and bless the Christmas Tree, lighted candle Crib and Christmas dinner. It will remind us of why Christmas is so

CHRISTMAS PACK

The four Parish Christmas magazine, Christmas ~Card and Dues envelopes are being delivered around the parish. They are also available at the doors of the church. Please take one and perhaps deliver it to an elderly or housebound neighbour
